MUSIC DIRECTOR

LEO EYLAR

Leo Eylar is in his 31st year as Conductor and Music Director of the California Youth Symphony. He is also Professor Emeritus at California State University, Sacramento where he served on the full-time faculty for 30 years directing the symphony orchestra, as well as teaching music theory, history, and composition. Eylar has guest-conducted extensively throughout Europe and Asia, including prestigious music festivals in Japan, Austria, France, and Australia. He is also a composer of international renown whose works have been performed on five continents and at many of the world's most prestigious venues. His Dance Suite for Trumpet and String Orchestra was recorded by the Seattle Symphony and his Rhapsody for Orchestra (1994) was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize. Recent commissions have included a Sonata dedicated to well-known German bassoonist Frank Forst and a large-scale percussion duo titled Two Klee Sketches. Eylar recently completed a work based on the Orpheus legend, scored for large symphonic wind ensemble, that was premiered on June 1, 2018 at the Mondavi Center by the UC Davis Concert Band under the baton of Pete Nowlen.

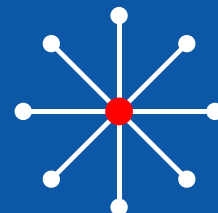

WIND SYMPHONY & ORCHESTRAS

PETE NOWLEN

One of Northern California's busiest musicians, Co-Director Pete Nowlen has been the California Youth Symphony Brass Coach since 1992 and summer camp co-director since 2007. He was appointed Wind Symphony Director in 2019. Pete is the Director of Concert Bands and Horn Instructor at UC Davis, where he joined the faculty some 30 years ago, and was, until 2016, the Horn Instructor at CSU Sacramento. Pete also serves as the Artistic Director of the San Francisco Lesbian/Gay Freedom Band, Symphony d'Oro - Rancho Cordova, and Camerata California Chamber Choir and Orchestra.

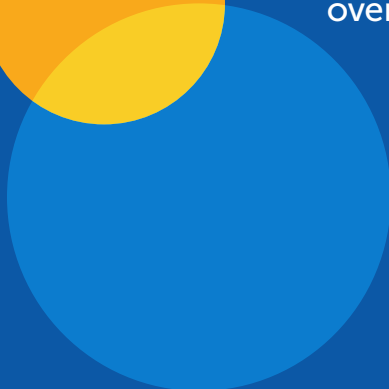

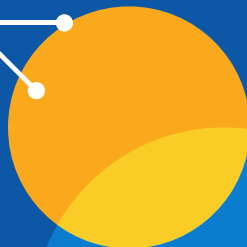

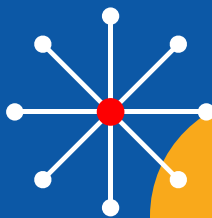

STRING ENSEMBLES

KATI KYME

Kati Kyme's dedicated association with the California Youth Symphony has been a joyous and inspiring exchange. The String Ensembles Program has expanded to encompass two full string orchestras totaling to 150-180 players and continues to fully prepare these musicians for advanced placement in the Associate and Senior Orchestras of CYS. She is also Music Director of Berkeley Baroque Strings. As a violinist, Kati is often concertmaster of Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra and the American Bach Soloists. One of her most treasured accomplishments is the formation of the New Esterházy Quartet which specializes in the music of Haydn and his contemporaries and performs concerts in Berkeley, San Francisco, and Palo Alto many times a year. Her discography is impressive. She can be heard in over 100 recordings of music from 1650-2015.

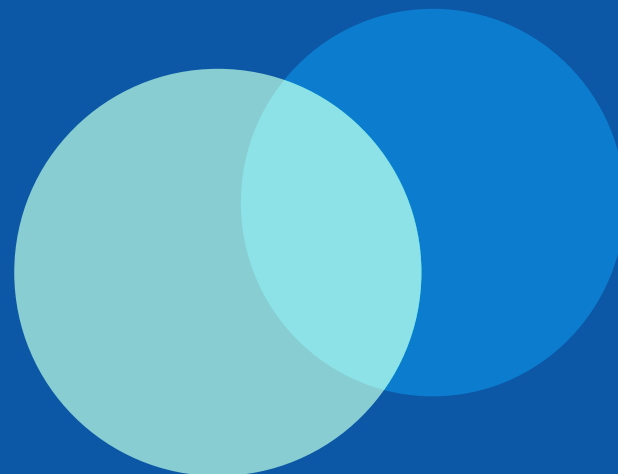

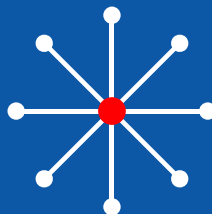

WIND ENSEMBLES

ROSITA AMADOR

Ms. Amador has been teaching instrumental music in the Berryessa Union School District and directing the California Youth Symphony Wind Ensembles for over 20 years. She has a private clarinet studio in Saratoga.

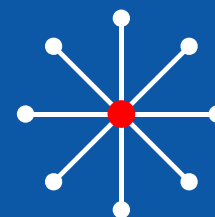

PERCUSSION

ARTIE STORCH

As an active Bay Area free-lance musician, Artie Storch is a regular extra percussionist for the San Francisco Symphony, Silicon Valley, Oakland and Marin Symphonies, and has performed with ensembles ranging from Masterworks Chorale to Metallica. He is a frequent player in the Bay Area theater scene, where he has performed in numerous shows including White Christmas, Beautiful (The Carole King Musical), and the long-running Phantom of the Opera.

As principal percussionist for The Skywalker Symphony, his recording credits include playing drums and/or percussion for movies, television, commercials, records, and video games. He teaches privately and is on the faculties of California State University East Bay and Chabot College where he teaches percussion and directs the percussion ensembles.

chorus

The Music in the Mountains Chorus is an auditioned community chorus under the organization Music in the Mountains, made up of about 80 singers from the Sierra Nevada foothills region. They perform several times a year, sharing their love of great choral music with the community. The chorus has its roots in the Golden Chain Chorale of the 1970s, a group of 20-40 members, part of the Sierra Musical Arts Association. The chorus has since grown into one of the top community choirs in the Sierra foothills. Many of the founding members are still part of today's choir. Recent performances include an array of great choral works, such as Carl Orff's Carmina Burana, Mozart's Requiem, Ralph Vaughan Williams' Toward the Unknown Region, Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore, and Faure's Requiem.
