EVENING SOLOISTS

AARAV JOSHI, *Tabla

Aarav Joshi is a freshman at Foothill High School. He has been playing the tabla for five years, and also began teaching it two years ago. In addition to tabla, he has been studying piano for four years, teaching piano classes, and performing jazz on both piano and percussion in middle school. He has had the pleasure of performing for various audiences, including at UC Davis, Amador Valley High School, and at his middle school, where he performed Reena Esmail's Chamak, the same piece featured in this concert. He is excited to share his passion for music with the audience and looks forward to this performance.

JUSTIN TIEN, *Violin

Justin Tien, 15, is a freshman at Lynbrook High School. He has played the violin for 8 years, and currently studies under Tina Minn. Justin made his Carnegie Hall debut in 8th grade after placing in the American Fine Arts Festival. He then performed a second time at Carnegie Hall last year after placing in the American Protégé Competition. He immigrated from Taiwan in 2023 after graduating from 6th grade at Fuhsing Private School. In Taiwan, he was the concertmaster for his school orchestra, leading it to win First place at the Taipei City School Orchestra Competition and placed among the top orchestras in Taiwan National Orchestra Competition. As a solo artist, he placed in numerous other competitions in Taiwan, including the Falla Music Competition and Lyra Academy Talent Competition. In the US, Justin also placed in the 2025 US International Open Music Competition, San Francisco International Innovative Music Competition, and Golden Classical Music Awards. He participated in the CODA All-State Orchestra in January 2026. Besides violin, Justin also enjoys film, community service, and creative writing.

MATTHEW LI, *Cello

Cellist Matthew Li, 15, is a freshman at Saratoga High School and currently studies with Jonathan Koh. He has participated in the California All-State Orchestras in 2024, 2025, and 2026 and made his debut at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall in 2024. Matthew is a prizewinner in both the American Protégé Music Competition and the Silicon Valley Music Competition.

He serves as the Co-principal Cellist of the California Youth Symphony's Associate Orchestra and is an active member of Let Nature Sing, a non-profit organization that raises environmental awareness through music. He is also part of the San Jose region of the Back to Bach project.

Originally inspired by Yo-Yo Ma after hearing one of his recordings, Matthew started his journey four years ago. He is passionate about performing with the California Youth Symphony and collaborating with fellow musicians. He especially enjoys listening to works of Bach, Dvořák, and Tchaikovsky, and continually seeks out a wide range of musical styles, with a growing interest in chamber music. Outside of music, he enjoys creative writing, tennis, and spending time with friends.
