

60 Musicians to Appear In First Youth Symphony

The California Youth Symphony will give its premiere concert in the Burlingame High School auditorium Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The orchestra, consisting of approximately 60 members, is composed of Peninsula young people who have been rehearsing for the past eight months in preparation for their first public concert.

The soloist on this concert will be Keith Vernon, French horn player, and he will present Mozart's "First Concerto for Horn" in D minor, with orchestra accompaniment.

The harp solos in both "Malgucna" and "Alice in Wonderland Suite" will be played by Beverly Bellows of the San Mateo High school.

Other members on the program will be the Raymond Overture by Ambrose Thomas, and Symphony No. 8 in B minor by Franz Schubert.

There will be a repeat performance of the concert at the Palo Alto High School auditorium on Sunday, October 19, at 2:30 p.m.
