

CALIFORNIA YOUTH SYMPHONY

CELEBRATING 75 YEARS

LEO EYLAR Music Director
75th Season

WELCOME

Celebrating 75 Years of the California Youth Symphony!

Established in 1952, CYS has long served as a premier training ground for the Bay Area's most talented musicians and future innovators, fostering a vibrant community of music enthusiasts. Today, our programs support more than 400 gifted young performers from nearly 150 schools across the region. CYS provides a unique environment where dedicated students develop their artistic voices, cultivate rigorous discipline, and enrich our local cultural fabric. Beyond our local impact, our award-winning international tours continue to garner critical acclaim, and we remain dedicated to providing high-quality performances to our community with no admission fees.

THE CALIFORNIA YOUTH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

(Senior Orchestra) is our most advanced ensemble—a professional level symphony orchestra conducted by Leo Eylar.

THE CYS ASSOCIATE ORCHESTRA

is an advanced/intermediate level symphony orchestra under the baton of Leo Eylar.

THE CYS WIND SYMPHONY

is the flagship ensemble of the CYS Wind program and provides young talented musicians a professional-level wind symphony experience under the direction of Pete Nowlen. Mr. Nowlen is Director of Bands at UC Davis, an award-winning French horn soloist, and director/conductor for several prominent groups. Mr. Nowlen has been closely connected with CYS for over 30 years, serving as Summer Camp Director, Assistant Conductor, and regular brass coach.

THE CYS STRING PROGRAM

offers two ensembles under the direction of Kati Kyme. Ms. Kyme has a master's degree from Yale University and frequently appears as soloist and concertmaster with the world-renowned Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra.

THE CYS WIND PROGRAM

offers two ensembles under the direction of Anthony Lanzino. Mr. Lanzino has a B.A. in music from San Jose State University. He is a music educator at La Entrada Middle School and also worked with the 21-time DCI (Drum Corps International) world champion Concord Blue Devils A Corps.

THE CYS PERCUSSION PROGRAM is under the direction of Artie Storch. Mr. Storch has a master's degree from The Juilliard School and appears regularly with the San Francisco Symphony and other local orchestras. He is also the Percussion Director at Chabot College.

The 2026 Season Opener celebrates Leo Eylar's 36th year on the podium. A highly esteemed educator and Professor Emeritus of Music at California State University, Sacramento, Eylar is also an internationally recognized composer and a distinguished conductor.

75^{cys} OUR NEW SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The California Youth Symphony proudly celebrates its 75th Anniversary with a spectacular Diamond Season—a year of extraordinary music, remarkable young artists, and unforgettable performances.

This landmark season features two outstanding Young Artist Competition winners performing beloved masterpieces of the concerto repertoire: Sora Corro in Grieg's magnificent Piano Concerto, and Daniel Wang in Elgar's deeply moving Cello Concerto. Audiences will be swept away by the grandeur and opulent scoring of Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, and join us in commemorating the 250th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence with Charles Ives's spirited Variations on "America."

We are also delighted to welcome back acclaimed Steinway artist Natsuki Fukasawa, returning to the CYS stage for a thrilling performance of Gershwin's exuberant Variations on "I Got Rhythm" for piano and orchestra. The season culminates in one of orchestral music's most spectacular showpieces—Respighi's breathtaking Pines of Rome.

Our Diamond celebration extends beyond the concert hall with a series of special alumni events, bringing together generations of CYS musicians to honor 75 years of artistic inspiration and community.

Throughout the season, our Associate Orchestra, Wind Symphony, Wind Ensembles, and String Ensembles will present a variety of works by Tchaikovsky, Mussorgsky, Mozart, and many other beloved composers.

Join us as we celebrate 75 years of musical excellence with a season of passion and brilliance—a fitting tribute to the remarkable legacy of the California Youth Symphony and an exciting look toward its future.
